Others to Go On Four-Day Schedule—Ten Per Cent. Wage Increase of 1923 Is Eliminated But Payroll Will Show Substantial Increase.

Announcement was made through bulletins posted in all departments of the Riverside and Dan River Cotton Mills, Inc., yesterday evening that on September 1st, 1924, some of them would resume operations on full time, while others would begin to operate on a basis of four days a week. Included with the announcement was the statement declaring that the ten per cent wage increase which was ordered effective April 1st, 1923, would be eliminated, the explanation being offered that while the wages of operatives who have been continuously employed during the period of curtailment, it would mean in reality that the operatives as a whole would receive more money and that the weekly payrolls would be consequently increased.

Workers in the mill were no less cheered by the prospect of better conditions than were the business men and people of Danville generally, since an accession in the volume of business in Danville may be expected partly in September. The statement which was issued officially at the offices of the mill yesterday points out that there is no basic change in the cotton goods market though it is privately learned that more orders and enquiries for goods for the Fall trade are being received which is a favorable index of the future trend of business. The statement issued at the offices of the mills at Schoolfield is as follows:

HANGING OF LEOPOLD AND LOEB DEMANDED

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Police are seeking the origin of a letter urging the hanging of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb for the murder of Robert Franks, found last night on the steps of the home of a wealthy neighbor of Loeb, weighted down with a human leg bone, resting between crossed arm bones with a human skull above. The bones were those of a woman, possibly said and possibly metallic tags, causing the belief that they came from some medical school.

The letter read: "If the court don't hang them, we will," and was signed "K. K. K." Because a police guard has been maintained since the youth's arrest, the officers believe the letter was left at the nearby residence.

TOWN TOPICS

E. R. Diggs, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has telegraphed to the Atlanta Constitution taking issue with the recently broadcasted assertion that motor tourists were being victimized by vigilant officers in the vicinity of this city. Mr. Diggs has asked that a correction be broadcast, explaining that there is no truth to the assertion.

Fire Chief Lewis Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell are attending the annual meeting of the International Association of Fire Engineers which is being held at the Hotel Hamilton, N. Y. They left early on Sunday morning and will be gone about ten days. Captain W. L. Cole is acting fire chief in Mr. Mitchell's absence.

The Danville Retail Merchants' Association will hold another of its series of social meetings on September 2nd. The scene of the banquet has not been determined definitely but it probably will be held at the Country Club as the previous successful affairs have.

Several dances are being arranged for the benefit of the delegates to the American Legion convention opening here next Monday. Admission to these dances will be by card only and are being arranged primarily for the visitors owing to the limitations to the space of the dance floors.

Peyton R. Hatcher entered Edmund hospital on Sunday and is being prepared for a surgical operation which will be performed tomorrow. He is reported to be suffering from gall stones and it is confidently believed that his trouble can be corrected. Mr. Hatcher returned about ten days ago from Hot Springs, Ark., and was almost immediately stricken with a recurrence of the malady.

The subject for discussion at the prayer meeting at Mt. Vernon Wednesday will be "The Pleasures of Life and Where They Are Leading Us" and the subject will be discussed by Charles Orchard, Mrs. A. R. Murphy, Miss Hortense Eanes and John Hugglett. The services will begin at 8 o'clock and will last one hour.

William Harris, a negro in jail facing trial on a felony charge as result of being captured by Police Officer O. T. Cook with a small quantity of liquor in his automobile, was taken to the hospital yesterday where he died. Under the Layman act, this combination is especially provided for by a penitentiary term in the event of conviction.

The Industrial Commission of Virginia held a session this morning in the city council chamber at which time evidence was taken bearing on the four or five industrial accidents, which have occurred in this district. The commission was represented here by Mr. Shuman, Major C. G. Kizer, recalled as former chief of police of Norfolk and well known in many sections of the state. All of the accidents on which evidence within the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act. The evidence was taken down stenographically and will be transcribed in Richmond where it will be studied by medical advisers who are usually ruling in decisions rendered.

Joe the Turk to Rescue His Sister

People who recall the presence here, two or three years ago, of "Joe the Turk," a staff captain of the Salvation Army, will be interested to hear that he is going to Turkey with the avowed intention of rescuing his sister who is a Congregationalist missionary in Asia Minor and who under a new Turkish law is to be sent to Russia. His sister, Wariza Youskatchian, a seventy years of age and if the Turkish edict is carried out, he fears that it may result in her death. Although the staff captain is forty years connected with the Salvation Army, he is really an Armenian, and it is for this reason, he is quoted as saying, that his sister is being discriminated against. Joe, on the occasion of his visit, elicited general concernment by his colorful uniform and his open air services at the corner of Union and Main streets. He claims to be one of the earliest users of the saxophone.

LIKE BLACKBOARD

They don't need a blackboard when Fred Benning, an Oregon lumberman, is around. All they do is trace something on his back with a light stick and it stands out in relief through a swelling of the skin. His friends call it "autographic skin." The condition disappears within a few minutes.

FOUR FIREMEN ARE HURT IN NORFOLK FIRE

Several Caught Beneath Walls and Number Have Narrow Escapes

(By The Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 19.—Four firemen were hurt, one seriously, when the four walls of Engle Brothers store on Main street collapsed at 7.15 a. m. today during the progress of a fire that caused damage estimated at $150,000.

Firemen J. T. Rhodes, and S. A. P. Mintulo, who were hurt while on duty, were rushed to a hospital for treatment. Master Mechanic James Hutton and Engineer J. E. Duffy, who were bruised about the body when a motor engine was buried by an avalanche of bricks and crashing timber, remained at the scene. Rhodes is believed to have been the most seriously injured. Many firemen missed death by a few feet when without warning walls of the burning building buckled and collapsed. One of the most remarkable escapes from death—that of Hoseman Felix Corletto of headquarters who was nearly buried by scores of bricks that bent the nozzle in his hand. The fireman made his way under the mass of debris unscathed. While the origin of the fire has not been determined it is generally believed that it started in the second story of the building at number 80 Roanoke avenue which was used for storage purposes by Engle Brothers. A report from the hospital shortly after the fire was taken there disclosed that while suffering much pain it was not believed that the injuries would prove fatal. X-rays have been taken of both Mintulo and Rhodes to determine the extent of their injuries.

A carload of toys that would have brought delight to kiddies at Christmas time and which had just arrived yesterday was destroyed. Beneath the ruins of the structure are tangled bicycles and all sorts of play things.

Miss. Democrats Nominating U. S. Senator Today

(By The Associated Press.)
JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 19.—Mississippi Democrats went to the polls today to nominate a United States senator. Four members of the House of Representatives and lesser officials. Four additional congressmen, being without opposition, have already been certified as the nominees. Democratic nomination is equivalent to election.

Friends of Senator Pat Harrison predict he will sweep the State with only four members of the House of Representatives and lesser officials. His opponent, former Governor Earl Brewer, however, seems confident of victory.

W. P. Whitlington, Harry Hule and Walton Shields, seek the nomination to Congress from the third district. Rose Collins, incumbent, is opposed in the fifth by Florio Loper. Percy Quinn, incumbent, is opposed in the seventh by E. H. Ratcliff. Representative J. W. Collier is opposed by Dr. J. C. Zellar and Jack Gears in the eighth.

A supreme court justice and six State highway commissioners also are to be nominated.

GRAND JURY TO PROBE KILLING WOMAN TODAY

Evidence Sufficient to Indict Former Pugilist for Murder Is Claimed

(By The Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 19.—Kid McCoy, ex-pugilist, held on suspicion of murder in connection with the death last Tuesday night of Theresa W. Mors, became mentally unbalanced in his cell here today, according to a police announcement. Allentists yesterday declared McCoy sane.

(By The Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—Thirty witnesses were subpoenaed to testify before the county grand jury today in its investigation of the shooting of Mrs. Theresa W. Mors here last Tuesday night and the subsequent wounding of three other persons in and near the Mors antique shop, a cycle of events which resulted in the arrest of the former pugilist, Kid McCoy, on charges of suspicion of murder, attempt to commit murder, and highway robbery.

Among them was Albert A. Mors, former husband of the dead woman and until their recent divorce, her partner in the antique business, Mrs. Iva Martin, occupant of this apartment below that in which the shooting occurred, who insists she saw Mors leaving the building immediately after the fatal shot was fired, several detectives who insist she must have been mistaken. Wm. G. Ross, who was wounded in an attempt to escape from the Mors antique shop after Kid McCoy entered the Wednesday morning and Mrs. Sam Schupp, the other two victims of the shopping district shooting affray, who say McCoy sought them out and shot them because they encouraged a reconciliation between Mr. and Mrs. Mors.

Out of the testimony of these and other witnesses, District Attorney A. Keyes confidently predicts will develop an indictment charging McCoy with the murder of Mrs. Mors. McCoy's sister, Jennie Thomas, has already told the grand jury of an alleged confession made by her brother while the body of Mrs. Mors was yet warm.

McCoy says that Mrs. Mors killed herself in his presence in the apartment they had been occupying. "Mr. and Mrs. Shields" for about a month, but the version on which the district attorney expects the grand jury to base its indictment is that the former idol of the prize ring killed her because she told him she would not marry him.

The testimony of Mrs. Martin is expected to prove important facts in the case that the police have not brought out. Detectives point out that the story of a woman's screams issuing from the death room about midnight closely followed by a pistol shot and the noise of one or two men leaving the place, helps to fix the time of the shooting and to establish it as a case of homicide and suicide.

Allentists yesterday put a serious obstacle in the way of any attempt to free McCoy on an insanity plea, when two of three specialists sent into the suspect's cell by the district attorney reported him entirely sane. The alleged written reports of the three allentists will be submitted today.

ALMSHOUSE INMATES ARE BEING MOVED TO CITY HOME

Today is moving day for the Alms-house to the City Home marking a transition from the old order of things in an old building to a new order in a new building which will no longer be known as "the poorhouse."

With the tacit agreement among members of the City Home Commission that Contractor C. M. Webster had satisfactorily discharged his duty in the removal of the old building, the acceptance of the structure delayed until the council acts, the task of moving the 23 inmates from Poor-house Hill to the River Road Knoll began at half past ten o'clock this morning with Rev. Malcolm S. Taylor, chairman of the City Home Commission personally directing the operation.

All was ready at ten o'clock and a high degree of interest if not excitement prevailed among the small crowd only over the prospect of leaving what investigators found a year ago to be a chamber of horrors for a new clean and sanitary home where they will have more of the comforts of life than it was possible to supply in the old building. A closed sedan, drove up to the door and the first four inmates in clean clothes and carrying only such belongings as were essential or prized for sentimental reasons, they sped off to the new home.

It was the first time the inmates have seen their new abode and they found Mrs. Beverly Farrar, superintendent ready to greet them all were reported as being greatly pleased over the building. Alms-house inmates, who had been left in comparative comfort with comfortable rockers and new comfortable

KILLS HUSBAND

Because she loved her husband and could not bear to lose him through a divorce suit he had filed Mrs. Regina Morely, 32, of Kansas City, shot and killed James Emmett Morely, 33, when he visited the home to see his 20-month-old baby. They lived in the fashionable residential district in their home known as the "House of Hearts."

FRENCH TROOPS BEGIN TO QUIT GERMAN TOWNS

Evacuation of Baden Cities Begin Without Incident

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, Aug. 19.—Evacuation begun yesterday morning by French troops of the Baden towns of Offenbourg and Appenweier, completed last night without incident. The French war department announced today.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

(By The Associated Press.)
STRASBOURG, Aug. 19.—Precautions taken by the German authorities against possible incidents during the French evacuation of Offenbourg and Appenweier proved needless, as the populations not only of the affected towns but of the whole district showed indifference with the exception perhaps of the children, who were excited to regard the soldiers' departure.

Heavy Losses In Severe Rainstorm

(By The Associated Press.)
DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 19.—Two men lost their lives, many head of cattle were destroyed and property damage of hundreds of thousands of dollars was reported in the rainstorm in eastern Iowa last night. Virtually all of the cities and towns in the storm's path were flooded and the Wapsiegon, Cedar and Big Creek rivers overflowed.

A. M. Schley and Declaud Barret, farmers near Bertram, were drowned in the swollen Big Creek while looking for strayed cattle.

PERJURY CASE AGAINST BOXER IS POSTPONED

KENDALL GOES ON TRIAL FOR MURDER TODAY

Spottsylvania Farmer Charged With Killing Druggist Last May

(By The Associated Press.)
SPOTTSVILLE, Va., Aug. 19.—Judge E. Dabney, presiding in the trial of Charles B. Kendall, charged with the murder of Dr. Robert L. Powell, today overruled a defense motion for a change of venue but with the consent of the prosecution sustained a move to quash the present venire.

The trial opened early in the afternoon with Kendall entering a plea of not guilty and his attorneys asking for a change of venue, based on charges that S. H. Powell, commonwealth's attorney and brother of the deceased, had used the columns of a newspaper to provoke prejudices against the accused.

The defense charged that thirteen of the alleged articles had been printed and as a result the defendant could not get a fair trial in Spottsylvania. Six affidavits were presented in behalf of the motion.

Judge Dabney overruled the motion along with a companion move for a change of venue on the same grounds, as premature.

In making its motion to quash the work of venire facies by which fifty jurors were summoned here today, the defense charged that Mrs. S. P. Powell, wife of the commonwealth's attorney, and a practicing lawyer, was present when the jurors were drawn and that she had something to do with the drawing of the names.

An affidavit by E. R. Garner was offered in support of the charges. Former State Senator O'Connor Gooldrick, acting commonwealth's attorney, countered in this motion, but not on the grounds given by the defense. He defended Mrs. Powell of the charges of having tampered with the selection of venire and stated that the jury commissioners were men of character.

Following the granting of the motion, court recessed pending the drawing of a new venire.

(By The Associated Press.)
SPOTTSVILLE, Va., Aug. 19.—Despite the prominence of families involved little difficulty was anticipated in securing a jury today for the trial of Charles B. Kendall, 24, charged with slaying Dr. Robert L. Powell near Granite Springs on May 17.

Fifty-six veniremen were ready when Judge A. B. Dabney directed Sheriff Carl A. Garner to open court. Officials hoped for a selection of the venire during the morning with examination of witnesses to begin in the afternoon.

A large number of spectators assembled early on the courthouse green—the same green from which General Robert E. Lee directed the defense of Spottsylvania sixty years ago. The motive behind the slaying of Powell had not been revealed before the trial and this was the chief subject of discussion.

Kendall, a farmer, is alleged to have shot Powell while the two were on a highway near Granite Springs. The farmer is charged with having called the physician from a store before shooting him five times. Powell died in his mother's arms two hours later but before he succumbed he is said to have dictated a statement saying: "Mr. Charles Kendall shot me."

At the preliminary hearing witnesses testified that Powell said: "Charles Kendall shot me, but I do not hold it against him. I am innocent."

These two alleged statements are expected to play an important part in the trial. A number of women witnesses have been summoned by both sides.

NEW HIGH LEVELS

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Both the railroad and industrial averages were at new high grounds for the year when the stock market opened today. The average of 24 leading industrial averages was 193.67 or almost 10 points above the year's minimum. Both averages recorded at net gain of about half a point in yesterday's trading.

WILL SING ON WEDNESDAY
Mrs. James Martin, of Richmond, who has been visiting her brother-in-law, has been asked to sing a special number at the Wednesday evening prayer service at Calvary Methodist church. Mrs. Martin sang at the services last Sunday and was asked to appear again next Wednesday. Her selection will be "The Silent Song."

Civic Club Making Effort to Have Argentine Fighter Deported Says He Made False Statements on Entering U. S.—Richard Lawyer Says It Is Black-mail Scheme.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—United States Commissioner Hitchcock today postponed until September 20 the hearing on a request for the deportation of Luis Alberto Firpo, a Canadian-born Argentine fighter who had been fighting for the Argentine cause in the New York civil league. Firpo's fight with Harry Wells is scheduled for September 11.

Canon Chase did not oppose the pending charges for the postponement, telling Commissioner Hitchcock that neither he nor the league desired to interfere with the Argentine's meeting with Wells.

"We have no desire to act against the fight," he said. "Our only interest in the prosecution of Firpo is to keep the country clean; to keep undesirable out of it. The woman was deported. Firpo is no exception; he also should be deported."

Assistant United States Attorney Maxwell told the commissioner that the government had no interest in the case and would have nothing to do with its prosecution.

Firpo was held in $2,000 bail, which was furnished.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—After traveling all night and had only a few hours of sleep, Luis Alberto Firpo, the Argentine heavyweight boxer, arrived in New York early today from Saratoga to answer charges of perjury made in a warrant obtained yesterday by William Sheafe, Esquire, on behalf of the Argentine league, which seeks Firpo's deportation on the ground that he made false statements to the immigration authorities.

The issuance of the warrant was the result of a campaign for Firpo's deportation waged by the Argentine league of New York, of which Canon Chase is the head, ever since the Argentine arrived here from Argentina in the company of Senorita Blanca Lourdes Firpo, who was married to him in the Argentine, which guaranteed that she would leave on the first steamer sailing for Havana, for which place her passport was issued. Firpo was admitted as a visitor.

At the hearing before U. S. immigration officials at which both Miss P. Cart and Firpo were examined, it was alleged the pugilist stated he and Miss P. Cart were only casual acquaintances. The civic league charges this is untrue.

Deportation measures, it passed upon by the board, probably will be taken in Jersey City September 11. Hyman Bushel, attorney for Tex Rickard, who brought Firpo to this country, declared the whole thing had resulted because Mr. Rickard had refused to be blackmailed. The lawyer went on to assert that Rickard had been asked some time ago to contribute $5,000 to civic league of New York, but had refused. Bushel declared he could produce the man who represented the civic league in making the request for a contribution.

When Canon Chase heard of the lawyer's charge he said: "I should be very much interested to know what person was authorized to represent the New York civic league. Of course any one might represent himself as being an agent of the league and we would not necessarily know of it. But as far as I know, no such request was made. As to the statement that the proceedings against Firpo are part of a blackmail scheme, that is absurd."

In his statement explaining why Firpo's arrest was sought, Canon Chase said: "The moral issue of the double standard was involved since the day of justice and humanity was shocked to see the woman treated worse than the man. The woman wanted to be admitted but she was rejected for technical excuses which the public knew to be a pretext but the man has been admitted as a mere visitor."

Miss Etheline Muse Buried at Mt. View

The funeral of Miss Etheline Muse who died unexpectedly of Sunday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Muse, West Main street, was conducted yesterday afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. Charles L. Garrison, pastor of Miss Muse, as interment was in Mountain View Cemetery where a large number of friends of the family had gathered. The pallbearers were C. L. Booth, P. L. Booth, W. T. Hughes, J. J. Swanson, E. B. Meade, H. C. Swanson, J. V. Reynolds, and John P. Hurd.

The flower bearers were: C. L. Booth Jr., W. T. Hughes Jr., Lawson Pugh, W. V. Neill, Dr. Garrison, John C. Teatts, C. S. Bennett, W. T. Spencer, H. C. Harvey, Julian Meade, A. C. Conway, J. D. Hunt, Landon Wyatt, Charles Gilles, Frank Paller, A. J. Perkins, N. P. Thomas, J. F. Neill, W. Penn, W. B. Pinnix, J. M. Powell, W. L. Booth, W. R. Davis, Pryor Ragland, Raymond Clutter, J. H. # BURN WIRES IN LAST EFFORT TO WIN PERSHING

Coolidge to Be Appealed to Personally Through Secretary Bascom Slomp

Thomas Fox, adjutant of the Danville Post, American Legion, this morning, received a long distance telephone call from the headquarters of the Stonehill Post, Staunton, stating that the Post band of forty-piece, will come to the Danville convention on Tuesday and will take part in the parade, probably giving a concert during the evening. With this news, the Danville Post band and Richmond delegates promising bands of their own and two local organizations already engaged there will be no lack of music.

Local officials of the American Legion, supporting the cause of the Virginia organization today began "burning the wires" in the hope of making it possible for General J. Pershing to fulfill his engagement here next week when the convention will be held. The matter is to be placed personally before President Coolidge in the hope that he will make it possible to avoid the keen disappointment which will be shared by the Virginia legionnaires through the general's inability to be present.

Post Commander Cousins yesterday acting on a suggestion from A. M. Aiken was in touch with Frank W. Lumpkin, postmaster of Danville, and a close personal friend of C. Bascom Slomp, secretary to the president with a view to securing possible action in the matter through this source. It is hoped to be able to prevail on Mr. Slomp to present the matter to the commander in chief of the United States army and thus bring about a change in General Pershing's official programme which would permit him to come South.

The telegraphic barrage is not stopping there by any means. Senator Carter Glass has been appealed to and so has Senator Claude A. Swanson both being asked to use their good offices in securing the presence of General Pershing who is under pressure to attend the convention but which he cannot do in the face of contrary military orders. James A. Catlin, president of the Chamber of Commerce has forwarded a compelling telegram to Mr. Slomp, and Mr. Conway who has been active in pre-convention work. The Danville Post is supporting this message, as are the newspapers and probably as many as a dozen local civic organizations.

It is being pointed out to General Pershing that the whole convention programme has been built about his personality and the keen disappointment which will be felt if he fails to come is being stressed, as is the moral effect of his personal visit which would be a great inspiration to the legionnaires of Virginia. Mr. Cousin's promise made here last November that if he could be of any assistance in getting Pershing here he would be glad to do it. He also is being asked to join in an active way the forces which are bent energetically on securing his presence.

The Keenth T. Miller Company, which has the contract to decorate the city has secured quarters on Market Street and will be busy for several days in the next few days. A large quantity of material has already been shipped here and the national colors will be freely displayed throughout the business section. A number of contractors have already signed contracts for the decoration of their store fronts, some of these to be quite elaborate.

Announcement was made today that the Danville Post has secured a coup which will be awarded to the owner of the car judged the most effectively decorated in the legion parade on Tuesday evening. A second money prize of $5 is also to be awarded.

Among the speakers to be heard here on the opening day of the convention will be Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian of Washington who is to bring a message to the legionnaires.

Another speaker will be Senator

Morgan Mims of the General Assembly, chairman of the War Memorial Commission who is expected to make an address on the status of the Memorial. At the last convention it was agreed that it should be of non-utilitarian type.

Almost nationwide interest will be focused on such action as may be taken with regard to the Alexander P. Cronkhite case by the Virginia legion. Major Cronkhite was mysteriously shot while at Camp Lewis in Washington state and the men suspected of the shooting have not, in the opinion of many legionnaires, been dealt with. There is also even greater interest in the underlying causes which brought about the retirement of Major General Adelbert Cronkhite, the major's father from active military service. The fact that hundreds of Virginia volunteers and select-men were trained for the war at Camp Lee of which Major General Cronkhite was commanding officer. The Petersburg Post delegates probably will bring up the matter formally on the floor of the convention with a view to securing affirmative action on a motion asking Congress to conduct an investigation not only into the shooting episode but also into the reasons for the retirement of the man who played such an important part in the development of the Eighteenth Division. Senator Carter Glass is already prepared to ask for such an investigation.

The body of Major Cronkhite was exhumed at the direction of his father. According to the declaration of examining doctor, Major Cronkhite was shot in the back of his left shoulder and the bullet entered the opinion that it would have been impossible for the officer to have inflicted the bullet wound himself as previously set forth.

General Cronkhite then set about to find the alleged murderer of his son and seek possible conviction. It was when that he encountered obstacles in the path of his personal work from a series of war department orders. He was ordered transferred to the Philippines, without the courtesy of being consulted on the matter, and succeeded in being placed at Camp Stewart, Newport News, whence he went to the Third Army corps headquarters. Though he had not reached the limit for automatic retirement, General Cronkhite was asked to resign and he declined to do so. He was then ordered into retirement and his appeal for a board of inquiry into the ethics and propriety of the action was refused. His case rests there.

The settlement of a matter of jurisdiction in the United States supreme court has reopened trial of the cases of Captain Rosenbush and Sergeant Pothier in the federal court at Washington, according to recent report, and these will probably be given hearing in the opinion of legionnaires of the "doughboys" who served with the Eighteenth division in France, that General Cronkhite has not been accorded just treatment and that retirement now under way will seek his vindication in the enforced retirement.

Trying Officers For Protecting Ill-Run House

(By The Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 19.—That Police Lieutenant Wm. S. White, "action word" that he would give credit to an alleged disorderly house and Patrolman Hall warned occupants of the house that a vice squad raid of the premises was the testimony given before City Judge Causey this morning by Courtney Basnight, sixteen-year-old and Mrs. E. M. Wainwright prohibition officer, of the juvenile court.

The house referred to was that maintained by Mrs. May Sawyer, who was convicted yesterday in juvenile court of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, fined $250, given a suspended jail sentence of one year and ordered to leave Norfolk.

The case developed at the hearing today, was heard by Police Chief Ironmonger largely on evidence which Mrs. Wainwright had collected regarding the house and a view to protecting the two young children of Mrs. Sawyer and two young girls of whom Courtney Basnight is one. The latter were seen frequently in the establishment, which Mrs. Wainwright testified today, "bore the reputation of being a house of ill fame."

Acquiring of evidence of alleged wrong doing on the part of the police officers was merely incidental, she explained. But having run across this information she gave it to Chief Ironmonger, she said.

QUESTION LEGALITY OF NEGROES' ARREST

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Aug. 18.—The legality of the wholesale arrest of negro strikers, members of the "South-side Strutters Social and Literary Club" of this city, when they returned from an all-day picnic at Hopewell, here late last night, has been questioned by the Commonwealth's Attorney William Amoroso, of Hopewell, said today he did not authorize the arrest of the entire boatload of 281 negroes but instructed Tom Sergeant Rebmam to have Nick Limbit, Greek confectioner, identify those men who were alleged to have raided his store and to take only those into custody.

"I greatly regret that this wholesale arrest was made," he said. "It is not right that a great many people be arrested in order to find several guilty ones. Sergeant Rebmam should have had Limbit identify the men actually wanted."

According to Limbit, about 20 of the negroes "rushed" his store and made off with forty watermelons, a bunch of bananas, quantities of cakes and candies and all form of tobacco. The 245 negroes actually arrested were taken to police court at Hopewell Wednesday morning. If they tell all they know of the affair, Mr. Amoroso said, they will be treated "more than fairly."

SHORTWEIGHT GERMAN BANKERS SEEK RELEASE

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—There are a lot of master bakers of Germany in jail for decreasing the size of their loaves of bread last year and increasing the selling price. This fact came to light here during the annual convention of the German Association of Bakeries, when a movement was launched to having about the release of the imprisoned members.

It was decided to ask the government to grant an amnesty for all the bakers who got into trouble during the inflation period when the bakers themselves had great difficulties in making both ends meet and often did not know from where their next meal was coming.

Dancing, Riding, Hobbies of General Hines

By NEA Service
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Major General John L. Hines, who is to succeed General Pershing as chief of staff, is a "regular fellow."

While a tireless worker and leader, General Hines has other accomplishments. And one of them is dancing.

He rarely ever misses a military dance. His tall, wiry figure is always sure to be seen on the ball room floor. With him dancing is a recreation and a pleasure.

General Hines' family is well represented in the army. His wife was Miss Rita Wherry, daughter of General William Wherry. His only daughter married Captain John R. D. Cleland. And his only son, John L. Hines, Jr., is now at West Point.

Riding is a hobby. The general's chief hobby is horseback riding. Every morning he rides before coming to his office and on Sunday he takes his staff officers for a long, cross-country ride.

General Hines is a commanding figure. Well over six feet, he is lean and wiry. One would describe him as the "rawbone" type.

During his West Point days he was a football player, and it is said he played on the first football team the military academy ever had.

Major General Hines—who will keep the same rank on becoming chief of staff—was born on May 21, 1868, in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. He was appointed to West Point in 1887. He graduated in 1891 and was commissioned a lieutenant in the Second Infantry of the regular army.

Among the campaigns he served in were the Santoago, Cienfuegos (Cuba) and the Philippine insurrection of 1901. In 1916-17 he served as adjutant general of the punitive expedition into Mexico in pursuit of Pancho Villa. For a time he acted as chief of staff of that expedition.

Was in World War.
General Hines sailed for France in May, 1917, and served as assistant adjutant general of the A. E. F. until October, 1917. Having been promoted to the rank of colonel, he was given command of the 18th Infantry of the First Division. In May, 1918, he became a brigadier general.

LAST WITNESS IN THE FRANKS CASE ON STAND

Courtesy Is Highest Degree
Marks Cross Examination of Dr. Krohn

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Courtesy raised to the highest degree marked the cross examination today of Dr. Wm. O. Krohn, state alienist and last witness in the judicial hearing which is to determine the punishment of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb for the kidnapping and murdering of Robert Franks.

In contrast to yesterday's proceedings when local experts and Benjamin Bachrach of counsel for the defense shouted angry retorts back and forth there were "please, etc." passed back and forth.

Even threats at the stands each of the sides to the other taken failed to provoke sharp retorts. Dr. Krohn once found occasion to dig into the defense alienist theories, explaining that he had given no formal opinion on the mentality of the defendants. He also stated that he was not a psychiatrist.

You mean that the reporters told you these exaggerations were offered by the defense, did you not?" asked Mr. Bachrach.

"Not entirely. Any way, I tried to explain them for the boys," was the answer.

"Ask him if he could explain them," suggested Clarence S. Darrow to Mr. Bachrach.

"Could you explain them?" the witness was asked.

The doctor flushed a bit at the implication but smiled and answered negatively.

KROHN RESUMES TESTIMONY.

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Expectation of oratory by attorneys was a magnet that drew to the Franks murder hearing today the usual crowd of spectators undeterred by a soaking rain.

Dr. Wm. O. Krohn, chief alienist for the state, resumed the stand for further cross examination by Benjamin Bachrach for the defense.

Clarence S. Darrow, chief counsel for the defense, was ready to take his place at Mr. Bachrach's side where yesterday he was whispering advice to his assistant.

Word came from state's attorney's office said that Dr. Krohn was the last witness for the state. The defense said that unless something unforeseen no rebuttal would be offered.

Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, co-murderers of Robert Franks, were in good spirits as they entered court after a friendly sparring match in the "bull pen."

Mr. Bachrach went over the high spots of the process by which Dr. Krohn reached the conclusion that Loeb was not mentally diseased.

Dr. Krohn said that his opportunities were ample that time to satisfy him that Loeb was "sane and mentally sound."

"Nothing had been shown you to the contrary at that time," was asked.

"Nothing at that time," was the response.

"And at different times since you expressed that opinion?"

"Not formally."

"You have been so quoted in the newspapers?"

SAYS FORGED TELEGRAM STARTED THE WORLD WAR

(By The Associated Press.)
VIENNA, Aug. 19.—It was a forged telegram that induced Emperor Franz Josef of Austria-Hungary to declare war against Serbia in July, 1914, according to a statement by Col. Seliger, who at the time the war began was chief of the press bureau of the Vienna war office, published in the Vienna Tageblatt.

Colonel Seliger says that a telephone message to the press bureau reported that Francis Josef at last had signed the war declaration but that he had been persuaded in doing so only after great difficulty.

The actual signing did not take place, asserts the writer, until Count Berchtold, Austrian foreign minister, showed the emperor a telegram which stated that Serbia had refused to accept the conditions for peace.

Colonel Seliger's quotes the late emperor as saying: "If so much blood has already been spilled, then war is unavoidable."

It was the very next day, says the writer, that Count Kinsky the famous courtier, informed the press bureau chief that the telegram was a forgery and that actually there had been no signing of the war declaration.

Just who it was who forged the telegram is not stated.

Ford of New York were elected to the governing board of the international town building and garden cities society. It was decided to hold the next congress in New York.

GLOBE AVIATORS ARE DELAYED BY DAMAGED SHIPS

Birdmen Will Be Unable to Leave Iceland For Greenland For 3 Days

(By The Associated Press.)
REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Aug. 19.—The American world fliers will be unable to leave Iceland for Greenland for at least three days more, owing to damage suffered by both planes in an attempted start.

Lieutenants Lowell H. Smith and Erik Nelson, the pilots, with their mechanics, Lieuts. Leslie Arnold and John Harding, Jr., rose early yesterday enthusiastic over the prospect of being off once more, after the tedious wait here for favorable weather conditions and establishment of a suitable landing place on the Greenland coast.

Their machines were heavily loaded with fuel for the hop off more than 800 miles to Fredericksdal and it was this extra weight that caused the trouble, as the planes refused to lift from the water. Repeated efforts to get off were in vain, and the strain caused the spreader bar on Lieut. Smith's plane to break while the propeller of the other machine was shattered.

Lieut. Locatelli, the Italian aviator, who arrived here Sunday, is still uncertain whether to join the Americans on their hop to Greenland or to remain here from 10 to 15 days longer for the purpose of taking motion pictures. While en route to Reykjavik from Hoehn Hornafjord, the Italian pilot and his companion took some movies from the air, said to be the first ever taken in Iceland. If successful in crossing the Atlantic, it is understood Locatelli intends continuing on to South America.

Italian Flier to Join Americans

(By The Associated Press.)
REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Aug. 19.—Lieutenant Locatelli, the Italian aviator, who has flown here from Pisa intending to cross the Atlantic in the wake of the American round the world fliers, will accept Flight Commander Lieut. Lowell H. Smith's invitation to accompany the Americans.

Locatelli probably will finish his preparations for continuation of the flight on Wednesday. Should arrangements for his accompanying Lieut. Smith and Lieut. Erik H. Nelson fail to be carried out, the Italian still has a steam trawler to transport his gasoline and supplies to Greenland and proceed with the assistance of the American warships on patrol, between Iceland and the east coast of Greenland.

A STEP TOWARDS NORMALCY

Announcement made yesterday evening in the various mills of the local textile organization that increased employment would be effective on September 1st will have a tonic effect on business generally in Danville which of recent months has been brought to realize sharply how dependent it is on full time operation of the plants. While the reversion to 1923 wage scales means a reduction of ten per cent. in pay to those who have been continuously employed, the operation of some departments on full time and of others on a four day schedule instead of three as at present means of course, increase in the weekly payroll and therefore a larger circulation of money throughout this community.

Perhaps the outstanding feature of the announcement is that there is no real change in the complexion of the cotton goods market and that the resumption of operations on a larger scale is not the result of a healthier tone of this basic and controlling factor. It does, however, exemplify the solicitude of the executives of the mill for the general good of the personnel and the community as a whole and a desire to strain a point in giving larger earning opportunities. This will fortify faith and confidence in those who control the activities of what has come to be Danville's key industry, as well as creating a helpful optimism and the belief that a sick man has taken a turn for the better.

HOCUS FOCUS

Now you see it: now you don't. The Republican party is suffering from lack of a dependable majority in congress. The Republican party is following the course charted by President Coolidge. A lot of Republican members of congress should be read out of the party for refusal to support the recommendations of President Coolidge. The Republican party has an unbroken record of public service. The Republican party was unable to accomplish much in the past session of congress for lack of leadership. President Coolidge is the greatest Republican leader in history.

That much have been the language of Frank W. Mondell, chairman of the committee that notified President Coolidge of his nomination to succeed himself. As permanent chairman of the Republican national convention at Cleveland Mr. Mondell complained of the lack of Republican unity. By inference he denounced the Republican majority in congress for its lack of support of recommendations of President Coolidge. The great need of the hour, he emphasized, was a dependable Republican majority in congress. As chairman of the notification committee, he talked as if he had never heard of the repudiation of President Coolidge by members of his party in the legislative body. He also spoke as if he had observed none of the wrangles behind the scenes of the Cleveland meeting, or the fact that a man voted for the presidency in that assemblage is now in revolt against the party, running on an independent ticket. Speaking in his notification address of the convention, he said it "will long be remembered for the splendid character of its membership, the fine spirit of patriotic purpose which marked its deliberations, and the sincere harmony and perfect decorum that characterized its proceedings." He declared that it had left no wounds to heal or differences of opinion to compromise.

Mr. Mondell, however, refrained from going into details of "the pleasing atmosphere of cordiality and good will" which prevailed Mr. Butler, the campaign manager for the president, and C. Bascom Slemple, the secretary to the executive. The public had been led to believe that there were some wounds left to heal in the relations of Brothers Butler and Slemple; that there were some differences of opinion between them that had to be compromised by no less a person than the president himself. For a time it looked as if Bascom might not be on the team at all. Neither did Mr. Mondell say anything of the fact that a man who had been nominated for the vice presidency refused to accept, nor did he refer to the attitude of such Republicans as Borah when they were mentioned in connection with the place. And here is what he says of the leadership of President Coolidge: "The country awaits with lively interest your charting of the party course, for you speak by authority on behalf of a great party with a matchless record of faithful adherence to sound principles and prompt and honest fulfillment of platform pledges."

That certainly will be news to the Republican majority of the Sixty-eighth congress. For months the members of his party in the senate seemed wholly unable to hear his recommendation of membership for this country in the world court, and when they finally did get around to the subject their leaders proposed something entirely different. He had no voice of party authority for them when he called for enactment of the Mellon tax bill. With great glee they turned in with the Democrats to enact another measure. Similarly did they ignore his "authority" as party leader when he disapproved the adjusted compensation act, and the form of restriction on Japanese immigration. The sooner the Republican spellbinders recognize that it is useless in this campaign to attempt to represent black as white or white as black the better it will be for them and their party. There are two sentences in the acceptance address of President Coolidge that all the spokesmen for the party should take to heart. They are:

"The people know the difference between pretense and reality."
"They want to be told the truth."

In New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The line between comedy and tragedy is finely drawn.

Raymond DeFarrio's idea of fun and personal amusement was to leap from the front of subway trains to see them stop suddenly. After he had been thrown out of a subway station after staging his mirth-provoking act several times, a policeman took him to Bellevue Hospital.

Trusty brakes and watchful motorists saved his life each time. He always made his leaps with an Italian flag clutched in his hands.

Dazzy Vance, sensational baseball pitcher of the Brooklyn Robins, loses weight to twelve pounds each time he works on the mound, he says.

Stylish stunts will be interested in his reducing formula.

Live eels will be exported to Germany in large quantities, and the systematic transfer of the eels in huge tanks.

Charity begins at home and I've given my last donation to a street beggar.

George Kennedy got off a street car at Sixth Avenue and 42nd street as spryly as an athlete, then threw out his joints to resemble a cripple.

Policeman Kraus arrested him and took him to jail. He had $3.34 in his pocket and a bank book showing deposits of $2,000 since Feb.

He doesn't even have to pay income tax.

William J. McKenna, the author of "Has Anyone Ever Seen Kelly?" says barber shop tunes are the worst rather to sing "Sweet Adeline" and kindred melodies.

He places the blame on automobiles and phonograph music.

Maybe it's just as well.

FARMERS FAIL TO ESTEEM TEACHERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The rural school is the chief defect in the educational system of the United States, only 150,000 have completed a high school course, it was brought out by Prof. Mable Carney of Teachers College. Only 10 per cent. have finished the eighth grade, and 20 per cent. the sixth grade.

The number of one-room rural school buildings in the United States is 149,227. Prof. Carney declared. The number of children in one-room schools is 1,400,000, or about 20 per cent. of the nation's total school enrollment.

Dr. Ernest Burnham of the Kaibab, Ariz., Normal School said the teachers in the United States are not appreciated. The average annual salary of rural teachers was only $729.

Boys and girls today are better in health, intelligence and physical strength than in any previous generation, says an English doctor.

Some Notes on Midgits
J. D. Wright, the book "Barnum," has, I think, aroused interest in the midgit, and I believe an article on the "little people" would be appreciated by the readers of your particular department.

How does the medical profession account for dwarfs? From the above mentioned book we learn that Mrs. Tom Thumb was the daughter of tall parents, and had a midgit sister and six brothers and a sister of normal stature. It was surprising to note that Mrs. Thumb's tiny sister had, by another midgit, a baby weighing five pounds 10 ounces, dying four hours after birth. A child of Mrs. Thumb's lived but two and one-half years. It is recorded that a certain Capt. Nutt died at 33 years of age while Mrs. Thumb lived through a second marriage and reached 77 years of age. As one writer puts it, what would you say is the "glamorous basis of midgits?"

The hunchback has also been made rather a romantic and at the same time pathetic figure in fiction. What is his relation to the dwarf? A hunchback and stunted growth seem to go hand in hand. How do the M. D.'s explain the hunchback? Are these two conditions ever hereditary?

REPLY
Hunchback is an acquired condition and is therefore not inheritable. It is generally the result of tuberculosis of the bones. Drinking raw milk from tuberculous cows is the most frequent cause of the infection. Rickets is another cause. This disease may be present at birth, or it may be acquired. It is caused by lack of sunlight and a diet which is poor in lime and phosphorus. A certain degree of hunchbackism is the result of occupation, as you may remember from Eugene Sue's "Mysteries of Paris." Hunchback people generally beg straight backed children.

Dwarfism is another story, and more than one principle is involved. Cretins are dwarfs in varying degrees. The cause of the dwarfing in cretinism is congenital disease of the thyroid gland. There is inheritability in cretinism, or rather in thyroid deficiency. Perhaps also some condition of the pituitary body may be responsible in some cases of dwarfism.

In his book, "Heridity in Relation to Dwarfs," Davenport treats of dwarfism in two places. In his chapter on the inheritability of stature, he somewhat incidentally refers to it; he lays down two inheritance laws governing stature. However, little in this chapter applies to dwarfism. In his chapter on the geographical distribution of inheritable traits, he connects dwarfism with inter-marriage. He gives no inheritance laws, but the chapter causes one to infer that when dwarfism is introduced into a stock on an island or in a mountain valley where the people stay close to home and intermarry for many generations, the number of dwarfs increases greatly.

Plainly Davenport regards this tendency as a manifestation of degeneration, and he does not discuss the possibility that it is a question of Mendelian inheritance. Another explanation, and, in my opinion, one that is more probably than that proposed by Davenport, is that dwarfism is a De Vries mutation, and that once it appears, it has some tendency to follow some of the laws of Mendelian inheritance. I have never seen any studies which took up the subject of excessive strain on the pregnant woman as a cause of dwarfism. Journalist's explanation of De Vries' mutations.

Why Cure Them?
K. N. G. writes: Is there any cure for freckles and what's it?

REPLY
No. Why cure them? Consider Wesley Barry.

White Spots on Skin.
K. D. S. writes: On my hands and different parts of my body white patches have come and they do not disappear. I wish you could tell me the cause and suggest a remedy. I have consulted two physicians about it, and they say it is due to a lack of something which supplies the skin, and appears as people grow older. I am a woman in the late fifties, and am well and vigorous, but find this very disagreeable.

REPLY
Probably you have vitiligo or leucoderma. If you are not anemic the condition does not threaten your life or health. Treatment does not accomplish much. Some people keep these patches stained.

Injuries To Eat While Working.
K. C. R. writes: Several employees in my office eat their lunch and type-write or do clerical work at the same time. Does this interfere with proper digestion, or is it in any way injurious to the health?

REPLY
It does. There is advantage in making the eating of a meal something of a ceremony. The stomach begins with washing the hands. The next step in the ceremonial is attaining the right frame of mind.

BETTING
The people are betting on good times ahead. During July more than 24 million shares of stocks were bought and sold on the N. Y. Exchange. This was nearly twice as much as in July a year ago.

A stock market boom runs three to six months ahead of business booms, and by the same length of time it anticipates depression.

BANDING
The leading iron and steel makers of all the important European countries are banding together, including Germany.

The purpose is to protect their business against invasion of Europe by American steel at lower prices. An industrial United States of Europe will probably be formed during the coming 20 years. Eventually there will be a political United States of Europe. The races could live together peacefully? They do it in America.

GONE
Farewell to the good days when an American tourist could go to Germany and live on tea and nothing. German prices are skyrocketing as a result of the attempts at currency stabilization, returning tourists report.

In Hamburg a room with bath in a second-rate hotel now costs $5 a day. American tourists brought a two, with beer, is $5—though the amount of beer consumed isn't stated. It must be a lot for the government recently repealed its regulations that restricted beer to less than 6 per cent. alcohol.

CHINESE
Lee Yuk-Tin, rich Chinese banker, visits New York and brings for exhibition relics buried 100 years before King Tut was born. These relics were dug up 18 feet underground near Canton, China, from the grave of an ancient king. They are marvelous artistic creations of carved jade, bronze and delicate porcelain.

China in the next few years will be the center of the world's attention. The Chinese claim their authentic history dates back to a high degree of civilization 22,000 years ago. We have much to learn from them—including their system of inheriting debts as well as legacies.

DANGER
August is the most dangerous month of the year for railroad grade-crossing accidents. The chance of beating the train to the crossing is never so great as in August.

Remember the train doesn't leave the track to hit the auto. The danger zone is only a few feet wide, between the tracks. Play safe unless you crave to explore the Hereafter.

WANTED
Australia wants 20 million new settlers. Her department of labor and industry is advertising for them. Shouldn't be any difficulty getting them if the word reaches impoverished Europe, facing generations of frightful war burden.

Australia's population now is only five and a half million people. But she has almost as much land as continental United States. Destined to be one of the five leading world powers—America, Brazil, China and Russia.

LOCUSTS HIT CROPS
JOHANNESBURG, Aug. 19.—Locusts have ravaged crops throughout South Africa. Cotton in the Rustenburg area has been destroyed. A hundred of farmers have lost the whole of the year's income. Gen. Herzog, the prime minister, recently appointed a day of humiliation and prayer owing to the continuance of the plague.

The NERVOUS WRECK
by E. J. Rath

SYNOPSIS
The "Nervous Wreck," an eccentric young easterner who is a guest at the Bar-M ranch in Montana, drives Sally Morgan, daughter of the owner, over a rough, uncertain trail from the ranch to the railroad station.

After several mishaps, they run out of gasoline and the occupants of a passing car refuse to lend them any. The Wreck takes five gallons at the point of a gun and drives on.

Later they are held captive at a ranch along the way because Charlie McSwen, the foreman, wants Sally for a cook. They discover that Mr. Underwood, the wealthy New York owner of the ranch, was in the car which they hid up. Underwood notices that Bob Wells, who is Sally's fiancé, comes to the ranch to take charge of the case. The Wreck notices Sally. "How long do you suppose he's going to stay?" asks Sally anxiously.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
"Haven't an idea. Not long, I guess, unless he's loafing on his job. "Oh, Bob never loafs. He is too active. He is a real sheriff."

The Wreck was tired of hearing the sheriff's virtues related, but he side-stepped an argument on the point. "Well, what are you going to do?" he asked. "Go out in the hills and hide?"

"No-o. We can't do that. But do we dare go up to the house?" "If we don't, who gets the supper?" "Oh, I suppose we do," she said wearily. "But if Bob should happen to walk into the kitchen—" She finished it with a gesture.

"He won't. He's a busy with Underwood. Got to take a chance, anyhow."

"Let's have got to—" They walked briskly to the house, praying that the sheriff would stay somewhere around the front until they reached the kitchen. Sally did not breathe a word until she saw the kitchen was empty. The Wreck moved over to the pantry door and bolted it.

"Only one door to watch now," he said. He unbolted the door and Sally went nervously about the work of getting supper.

"You'd better be careful there is nobody in the living-room when you set the table," she warned him. "Take a good look first."

It happened there was nobody in the living-room. As nearly as the Wreck could judge, the sheriff and Mr. Underwood were sitting out front. Every minute or so Sally went to a window that commanded a view of the porch to see whether the black horse was still there. It always was. She was overcoming her first dismay, and in place of it was growing angry.

The old unreasoning resentment against Bob Wells was returning. It made no difference if he did not know who he was pursuing; from the standpoint of Sally it was no less unpleasant. Or was she any too certain that he would abandon the chase if he knew for a fact that she was in the leaning-backward point—a regular bull-dog. He had a habit of talking about enforcing the law impartially against all evildoers; he even boasted about it.

She remembered when it seemed so long ago that she was before she had a pos on her trail. She wondered how far Bob Wells would really go, if he learned the truth. She was none too sure.

When Charlie McSwen came in she jumped at the sound of his step and a fork clattered on the floor. "That's company," said Charlie. Sweeney who still had a way of revering to the fact that Henry Williams was a "very strong" and who always grinned faintly when he mentioned it.

The Wreck found Timothy in the shed where they kept the big car. He was passing the time in grinding wheels. There was a faint look of alarm in his eyes as he beheld the thrower of dishes.

"You are to wait on the table tonight," said the Wreck bluntly. "Better go up to the kitchen now." "Me wait on the table? I never did. I don't know how. What for?" "Because I'm sick," said Timothy. "You don't look sick," said Timothy. "And you didn't act sick a while back."

"I'm sick," repeated the Wreck. "How I look has nothing to do with it. It's nerves. One of my spells is coming on. It was beginning this afternoon—just beginning, you understand?"

The look that he gave Timothy bored him like an auger. "I tried to walk it off, but I couldn't. It is coming on again. It gets worse. If I don't get to bed there is no telling—"

Timothy began wiping his hands on a ball of cotton waste. "How I look has nothing to do with it," he said gloomily. "Only if I don't do it right they haven't got any license to bowl me out. You better go get into bed right away."

The Wreck went off to the bunk house, where he stretched himself on the blankets and tried to get interested in an old magazine. He felt like a man who had retreated under fire, but he knew there was nothing else to do. What worried him most was the possibility that Sally might face a crisis alone. If anything happened he wanted to be there.

Sally did not find Timothy particularly diffident, although he seemed to be willing enough, once she had an apron on him. She instructed him in some of the rudiments and had him practicing at the kitchen table, with imaginary guests to be served.

"It is only for this evening, I am sure," she said. "Henry is almost certain to be better in the morning."

A Timothy said he hoped so, because the boss was always fussy about how his meals were served, having lived in New York most of his life.

Sally felt easier in mind when he reported that the family and the sheriff were at the table. It gave her a breathing spell. She felt that Bob was not likely to get up from the table so long as there was anything more to be served. Eating to him was a pleasurable job of stoking, as she had learned from plenty of experience at the Bar-M. He was even slightly vain of his achievements as a trencherman; Charlie had been entirely right about it. So she kept Timothy busy between kitchen and dining room, carrying things that made him so hungry to look at that he could scarcely wait for his own turn.

In fact, he did not wait for one of his trips back to the kitchen Sally observed that he was munching something. He hadn't admitted that he had been "snitching" a biscuit or two.

"They look so good, ma'am," he said with an apologetic smile. And I am pretty empty. Besides that, it's your nerves, and I hear them boosting the food which will soon be supposed to do it carry it round."

Of course, she could not be angry. "The boss and the sheriff are both doing it," said Timothy. "But you've got to admit they make good everything they say, by the way they lick into it."

It did not surprise her to hear that Bob Wells was enjoying himself. What a joke it was! If he only knew it was some satisfaction to know that you were eating a good job, even if you were conscripted.

Timothy kept her informed of the progress of supper, and also made a report of the conversation.

"It turns out," he said, "that other parties beside us have been getting by doctors that white bread is a likely cause of cancer. There has been a corresponding increase in the sale of wholemeal bread."

HIT WHITE BREAD

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The sale of white bread throughout England has decreased 50 per cent in the last two years due to the repeated warnings by doctors that white bread is a likely cause of cancer. There has been a corresponding increase in the sale of wholemeal bread.

NEW WIGS ARE BOON TO WOMEN

WIGS ARE MADE FOR EVERY MOOD. HERE ARE THREE. A LONG-HAIRED ONE. A CURLY BOB AND A BOYISH BOB

By MARIAN HALE

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—In the good old days if a woman wore a wig, she kept it to herself because she wore it for the same reason she wore false teeth—to remedy a deficiency of nature.

Today a woman may own half a dozen wigs which she changes as often as she changes her frocks and she doesn't care who knows it. You see her in the morning with a wig which she changes in a modish afternoon she may have soft ringlets all over her head, and by evening she may be wearing a topknot.

Obviously nature is not so specific. Hair can't do much better than to grow in a year, no matter how you coax it. So the only way to obtain such variety in one day is by co-operating with some reliable wig-maker.

Skillfully Made

The modern wigs are so skillfully made that if a woman wished to keep the matter of wearing one a family secret she would have much less difficulty doing so than in the old days when a wig had a way of looking less like hair than anything else.

But the idea of the modern wig is not to deceive, but to make a woman for any emergency. Bobbed hair is comfortable and most appropriate when wearing a garconne frock or a sport outfit. But when one is all dressed up in ruffles and silks, one needs hair—and that's where the wig helps you out.

Of course wigs became fashionable when bobbed hair became so popular. Long-haired ones are a positive boom to the woman who has cut her hair and then learns, alas, that her hair was her crowning glory. Shorthaired models are equally convenient for the woman who won't sacrifice her hair for a temporary fad, but must have bobbed hair.

Great Boon

They have not only been a boon but a positive salvation to the woman whose husband has threatened to leave her if she bobs her hair or to the woman who would lose her job if her employer caught her with short hair.

Undoubtedly wigs have come into our complex life at a time when we need them most. Long may they wave!

The woman in the photograph shows you how a wig can have a boyish look in just the amount of time it takes you to adjust three wigs. And the best part of it is that, in one he is a blonde, in one a brunette, and in one a red head, making her just three times as dangerous as ever before.

Roanoke Boosters
to Visit Danville

Traveling in a special train of Pullmans, accompanied by a brass band, and with a baggage car full of souvenirs, the Roanoke Booster Club, 150 members strong, will visit Danville on Thursday August 23. The special train will be at the Southern station from 9:00 to 10:00 a. m.

The Booster Club is an institution in Roanoke, and each year makes a three-day pilgrimage covering some territory contiguous to the Magic City. At each stop there are band concerts, short addresses and other entertainment features. Souvenirs are distributed by many business houses of the Magic City, and a spirit of good fellowship always accompanies the Boosters.

Last year the excursion carried the Boosters through parts of Tennessee, North and South Carolina, and they were accompanied by Governor Trinkle and members of his staff. Congressman Woodrum of the Sixth Virginia District, Mayor Fishburne, of Roanoke, and other distinguished personages, and big receptions were given them all along the route.

This year Governor Trinkle will be able to make only part of the trip but reports from Roanoke say that all the other members of last year's party will be with them here.

The object of these annual excursions of the Roanoke Boosters is to promote co-operation and better understanding among the people of this section. There is no attempt to invade the business rights of local merchants, but the Boosters teach the doctrine of buying at home.

This year for the first time the Boosters will carry a moving picture machine and pictures will be taken along the route. Booklets will be distributed free giving sketches of the various points visited.

There will no doubt be a large number of people from the surrounding territory here that day to welcome the Roanokers and make them feel at home during their stay.

Mother!

Clean Child's Bowels

"California Fig Syrup" is

Dependable Laxative for Sick Children

When your child is constipated, bilious, has colic, feverish-breath, coated tongue, or diarrhoea, a teaspoonful of genuine "California Fig Syrup" sweetens the stomach and promptly cleanses the bowels of poison, causes bile, restores food and waste. Never cramps or overacts. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs. Children love its delicious taste.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has full directions for babies and children of all ages, plainly printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.—adv.

LEMON JUICE
WHITENS SKIN

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quart of lemon juice. Massage this sweet, fragrant lemon juice into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion. Also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It cannot be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared.

Elks to Meet In Richmond Wed.

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 19.—Elks of Virginia were beginning a march on Richmond today for the opening of their annual state convention. The general entertainment committee here, headed by John A. Cutchens, is expecting large delegations from Roanoke, Norfolk, Newport News, Portsmouth, Lynchburg, Alexandria, Hampton, Petersburg and other Virginia cities.

A number of social features in connection with the convention has been arranged. The first business session will be held tomorrow morning.

Deeds of bargain and sale recorded in the clerk's office of the corporation court show the following transactions:

J. N. and W. L. Bear from Boatwright Furniture Company, Inc., 10 feet in Dodd street. Consideration $250.

M. Ethel Neen from L. Esther Sublett one half interest in 20 feet on North Main street. Consideration $1,250.

If bobbed hair be a sign of insanity in the female, consider the case of the close-cropped male. Yoho for King David of Benton Harbor.

Cold as ice—
this new breakfast and made with QUICK QUAKER without bother or fuss! Here's the recipe.

In thousands of homes, summer breakfasts have taken on a new charm. A dish so different, so luxuriously unusual that hot weather appetites instantly take on new life. To treat yourself and delight the family, do this: As you prepare dinner tonight, cook your regular breakfast quantity of QUICK QUAKER (the new Quaker Oats that cooks in 3 to 5 minutes). When done, pour into a pudding mould and let cool. Then place in the refrigerator over night. Cut in medium thick slices and serve at breakfast with fresh or cooked fruits or berries and sugar—float with rich milk or cream. The combination is delicious. A world noted chef discovered this new way. Join for the joy of it.

HELPFUL HINTS

TABLE LINEN

Table linen should be ironed in a single thickness until it is perfectly dry, then it may be folded and pressed.

WEAR WASHABLE GOWN

When cooking or doing housework it is advisable to wear a washable gown, and to change enough of these so you can always appear neat and fresh.

BREAD AND BISCUITS

If bread or biscuits have become hard, dip them in cold water for a few minutes, then place in a moderate hot oven and well heated. They will taste perfectly fresh.

KEEP OLIVES FRESH

When olives are left over, pour a little water over them, and olive oil over that. The oil will keep out the air and they will keep for some time.

CHOOSE FOOD YOURSELF

Choose all perishable articles like tomatoes, lettuce and berries yourself. If you are merely going to read an order off to a clerk you might quite as well do it by telephone as to go in person.

USE POTATO SLICES

If the fat gets too hot before you are ready to use it, for deep frying, put in a few slices of raw sliced potato to bring down the temperature.

PREVENTS ACCUMULATION

Wash your cleaning cloths and dry them after each using, then you will not accumulate soiled ones.

Meetings Held By Danville Minister
Prove Successful

Rev. C. E. Oter and family have returned to the city after being away for nearly four weeks, during which time Rev. Mr. Oter conducted revival services for the Union Grove Christian church in Pittsylvania county. As the result of these meetings a large number were added to the church. It was said to be the largest attended meeting in the history of the church. From there the Danville minister returned to his home in Danville, where he will be in charge of the church.

Mr. Oter was accompanied by his wife and children. They pitched their tent near each church and enjoyed a good life during the meetings. This is the second meeting Mr. Oter has held for these churches and was asked to return for another next year.

The evangelist has been called for a meeting at Old Jerusalem Christian church in King William county, near Richmond, which he will begin on August 24th.

Grape Jelly
in 15 Minutes

By Ann Proctor

The most delicious grape jelly you ever tasted—chock full of the natural color and flavor—can be made at home by anyone within 15 minutes after the fruit is crushed and squeezed. I use the CERTO method because it takes only one-half minute's boiling, thus saving flavor and color. Never fails, permits the use of full-ripe grapes, and is cheaper because I get one-half more jelly from the same amount of grapes.

To make 12 large glasses of grape jelly, use this simple recipe: Stem and crush thoroughly about 3 lbs. ripe grapes. Add 1-2 cup water, stir until boiling and simmer 10 minutes in closely covered saucepan. Strain fruit in cheese cloth bag and squeeze out juice. Then drip through cotton flannel bag if a sparkling jelly is desired. Measure 5 level cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar and 4 cups (2 lbs.) CERTO, stirring constantly and bring again to a full boil for 1-2 minutes. Remove from fire, let stand 1 minute, skim and pour quickly.

By this short "CERTO Process" you save all the flavor and color that time and worry are sure to destroy. You have 5 lbs. of jelly from 2 lbs. of grape juice as against 3 lbs. of jelly by the old method; and the cost with 30c grapes and 10c sugar is less than 10c per glass.

CERTO is simply the "jell property of fruit, refined and concentrated. It contains no gelatin or preservative and is sold by grocers everywhere.

The above recipe and nearly 100 others for making delicious jellies and jams by the "CERTO Process" are found in the CERTO Book of Recipes, a copy of which is attached to each bottle of CERTO. Be sure to try the CERTO recipe for grape jam, heretofore considered impossible to make. Use CERTO this year in making all your jams and jellies. It saves time, worry and trouble. It is the "CERTO Process" never fails and saves money, because you make one-half more jelly from the same amount of fruit; it is endorsed by national authorities and housewives everywhere. Jelly once jam made with CERTO keep perfectly.

THE CUBS DEFEAT BOSTON THROUGH ALDRIDGE'S WORK

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Boston was unable to do much with Aldridge today while Chicago hit Yeargin time and time again. The Cubs won the first game of the series 6 to 1. With a man on third, Yeargin captured Powell's long fly and Padgett scored after the catch, saving the visitors from a shutout.

GIANTS LOSE 5TH STRAIGHT IN LONGEST GAME OF YEAR

CINCINNATI, Aug. 18.—Cincinnati defeated New York today in the longest game of the National league season to date, 8 to 7, in seventeen innings. Carl Mays, who was in an automobile accident on his way to the park, was knocked out of the box in two rounds, Sheehan, pitching magnificently for nearly 16 innings.

Coming into the seventh, six runs behind, the Reds batted Dean out of the box, scoring four runs on three hits and a pass.

Neither side scored again until the 17th, when a wild throw to Daubert in an effort to force Kelly, and a sacrifice fly to Snyder gave the Giants a run. In the last half of the round Sheehan led off with a single and reached third on two outs. Roush singled to right scoring him with the tying run and came home himself with the winning run by fast base running on Burns' double to left center.

It was the fifth straight defeat of the Giants since coming west.

GRIMES ENDS PIRATES' STRING OF NINE STRAIGHT VICTORIES

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 18.—After winning nine straight games, four of them from the Giants, the Pirates went down to defeat today before the masterly pitching of Grimes, of Brooklyn. The score being 7 to 4. The Dodger moundman pitched carefully throughout and was in danger in only one inning, the second, when the Pirates batted in three runs. He allowed nine hits and also materially helped win his game by exceptional work at the bat, getting four safe blows in four times at bat and driving in two runs which put the visitors in the lead. It was Grimes' 25th complete game of the season. Three pitchers, Meadows, Pfeiffer and Stone, twirled for the Pirates and all were hit freely, Meadows being taken out of the box after the Dodgers scored two runs in the second. Traynor led the Pirates attack with two singles and a double.

Score: R. H. E.
Brooklyn ..... 020 111 020—7 15 1

FIRST ROUND OF POLI TOURNAMENT IS PLAYED

(By The Associated Press.)
NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 18.—The Green River polo team defeated Point Judith 11 to 10 in the first round of play for the Atlantic cup today at the Point Judith country club. The hard hitting and riding of Lee and Randolph called forth much applause and G. H. Dempsey also made many brilliant plays. J. H. Whitney scored for Point Judith three minutes after play commenced, the ball going from one side to the other of the remainder of the chukker and neither side tallying. In the second Gerald Dempsey scored twice and made the only goal of the third.

After one minute of play in the final chukker Randolph tied the score and shortly afterward scored again, putting Green River in the lead 10-9, but Whitney of Point Judith again tied with a pretty angle shot. With only 40 seconds to go Lee made a powerful shot and won for Green River. Wednesday afternoon Bryn Mawr plays Green River in the second round for the cup.

MELLON IN PARIS FOR QUIET VISIT

PARIS, Aug. 17.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon slipped into the Hotel Crillon yesterday on a quiet holiday in Paris with his family. He said today that he intended to make it purely a personal visit and he had not seen any French political or financial figures. Such figures as M. Robineau, governor of the Bank of France, and a director of the Banque de Paris at Pays Bas, two organizations which will have most to do with liquidating the war debts, count as personal friends, as Mr. Mellon met them last year when he visited Paris.

INDIANS EASILY DEFEAT ATHLETICS BK HITTING

(By The Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 18.—Cleveland hit freely the offerings of four Philadelphia pitchers today and by combining 16 base hits with 12 bases on balls won 13 to 3. Coveleskie held the Mackmen safe all the way but eased up in the last two innings.

Score: R. H. E.
Cleveland ..... 111 206 011—13 16 0
Philadelphia ..... 000 010 011—3 13 2
Coveleskie and L. Sewell; Meekins, D. Burns Harris, Hasty and Perkins, Goben.

WINGARD, BLOWS AND RED SOX WIN IN THE NINTH

BOSTON, Aug. 18.—A single by Pinch Hitter Pinchinn with three others by Boone, Collins and Ezzell, and a triple to right center by Wamby gave Boston three runs in the ninth and a 2 to 0 victory. Wingard hit first base, and the Sox scored half of their four hits. Treffy, first up, led off with a single, Reagan sacrificed him to second, Staley lined to left field, McDonald doubled for the only extra base hit of the game and Treffy scored.

"DUTCH" LEONARD LOSES FIRST GAME OF THE YEAR

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Leonard failed in his first start since his return to organize baseball today and Washington defeated Detroit 6 to 3 in a rally in the eighth inning.

Score: R. H. E.
Detroit ..... 003 000 000—3 9 1
Washington ..... 002 100 032—6 13 3
Leonard, Holway and Basler; Zahnizer, Marberry, Russell and Ruel.

"BULLET JOE" BUSH HOLDS CHICAGO AND YANKS WIN

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Bush held Chicago to four hits today and the Yankees made it three straight by bunching four of their five safeties in the first and sixth innings for a 2 to 0 score. Two walks and a single lifted the bases for the White Sox in the ninth but Schalk flied out to Ruth for the last out. Ruth walked three times.

Score: R. H. E.
Chicago ..... 000 000 000—0 4 0
New York ..... 100 001 002—2 5 0
Bush and Schang.

M'COY IS ENTIRELY SANE, ALIENISTS SAY

(By The Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—Kid McCoy, former pugilist, in jail here charged with suspicion of the murder of Theresa Moran, is entirely sane, according to a verbal report of two alienists to District Attorney Keys late today.

The verbal report was made to attorney by Dr. Paul Bowers and Dr. Louis Weber, the two alienists engaged in the case. Dr. Victor Parkin, the third, declined to make a statement to the authorities, but announced he could file a written report of his findings early tomorrow.

Murphy Trying to Strengthen Team

Owner Herb Murphy of the Danville baseball team has signed Ben Smith, a tall outfielder, formerly with the Winston-Salem team of the Piedmont league, it was learned last night. Smith has played here with the Twins and is regarded as a strong batsman. Announcement is also made of the re-signing of "Tubby" Shone, a pitcher, heretofore under contract with Owner Murphy and who came to Danville in the pre-season practice period, but left the city without reporting at the park for a work-out. He has now agreed to report, it is said, and will probably be here when the team returns from Winston-Salem on Thursday morning. Shone is regarded as an effective hurler. He hails from Harrisburg, Pa., and is said to have won 24 games this season playing with and against strong semi-pro teams of Pennsylvania.

In addition to these two men Owner Murphy was last night negotiating for an infielder now with the Rochester Internationals, but whose name has not yet been divulged. These negotiations sufficiently indicate that Mr. Murphy is doing all he can to strengthen his team, since its slump began two weeks ago. He is sparing no effort to place the Danville team on a full equality in playing strength with the other teams in the league. Some of the men are not batting up to the form they have formerly shown, and the pitching staff has also been slipping. In yesterday's game weakness at bat was solely responsible for the failure to win the game, which was a close and pretty contest otherwise.

BALL PLAYER WOUNDED

(By The Associated Press.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., Aug. 18.—Jack Layne, well known amateur baseball player, who has been playing this year in the terminal team in Roanoke, is in a hospital here with a knife wound in his right lung and A. R. Robinson of Roanoke, charged with cutting Layne, is in jail here pending the results of Layne's wound. The cutting occurred yesterday in an altercation between the two men.

TOBACCONISTS CLAIM FOUR HITS AND TWINS WIN FIRST OF SERIES

WINSTON-SALEM, Aug. 18.—The

Tobacconists started the week by dropping the first game of the series to the locals here this afternoon 2 to 1, when Barnier Thompson held the visiting Indians to four hits, one a scratch by Reagan in the third inning on a doubtful decision at first base. Thompson was in no danger after the first inning when the home team was scored and the Sox scored half of their four hits. Treffy, first up, led off with a single, Reagan sacrificed him to second, Staley lined to left field, McDonald doubled for the only extra base hit of the game and Treffy scored.

After that frame Reagan got a scratch single in the third and Cochlin a clean single into centerfield in the fourth. The rest of the way Thompson held the visitors hitless and only one other player reached first base, that being Staley in the ninth inning when he walked and was forced at second.

Winston tied the score in the second when after two were down Hassan Wingo hit a single, hit Albert Thompson got on by a similar method, Bernice Thompson singled into centerfield and Hamby scored.

In the sixth the home team added their last and deciding run when Lawan singled, the visitors hitless and went with a sacrifice. Long lined to second and Lewan scored on Hamby's single.

In the first, third and eighth innings the locals got their first man on base. In the first, third and eighth innings the locals got their first man on base. In the first, third and eighth innings the locals got their first man on base.

THREE HOME RUNS BEAT THE RALEIGH AGGREGATION

HIGH POINT, N. C., Aug. 18.—Four home runs and a flock of two baggers featured the local victory over the Capitals here this afternoon when the visitors came off with the small end of a 7 to 9 count.

Rube Eldridge started on the hill for the Pointers but the local shoots took kindly to where his wife is undergoing an operation. Monroe, secured from the Carolina league is filling in.

DOG-DAY STUFF

If you feel that you just must go to the bow-wow, now is the fashionable time to do it.

No nervous wreck can get any consolation out of the knowledge that a soprano-singing hound never plants his teeth in your thigh bone.

If she says "Love me, love my dog," don't start to flee. The dog may misinterpret your intention.

A dog has a lot of fine traits that a man might well adopt. But growing isn't one of them.

Don't come home after a long day at the office and blurt out, "I'm living a dog's life." Even the littlest woman must get tired hearing you brag.

Turn about is noble sport. Take the screws riding in your limousine and tie cans to the tails of the aristocratic chows.

Mr. O'Gruffy understands that the canine family is very fond of bones. "Well, I've got a new pair and I'll fade the lads for any amount."

Quit complaining about your puppies. If they hurt, get a larger size.

Be charitable in your remarks to hot dogs. Who knows but some day you may have a bun on too.

No watch dog will ever be really valuable until he learns the difference between your bootlegger and the guy that reads the gas meter.

Fashion Note: For dog days, stamp-speakin' politicians will wear non-removable steel muzzles and oblige the country at large.

League Leaders Easily Take Game From Patriots

DURHAM, N. C., Aug. 18.—"Hoot" Masters blanked the Carrollite aggregation here this afternoon while the locals were pounding Jinx Harris for six runs and the Bulls carried off the first game of the series with ease.

RARE CHAULMOOGRA GROWN BY U. S. FOR LEPROSY CURE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Uncle Sam has enlisted in the fight against leprosy from a new angle. At the Department of Agriculture's station at Bell Maryland, the government is engaged in propagating chaulmoogra plants, from which oil will be obtained to treat leprosy.

About 670 plants are growing in Maryland, and over 2,000 have already been shipped to Hawaii, the Philippines, the Canal Zone and Porto Rico, to mature in the warm climate of a tropical sun. There is no place in the United States where the trees will develop fully.

This work has been going on since 1910, when Joseph F. Rock, agricultural explorer attached to the office of foreign seed and plant introduction, visited the jungles of Burma and Siam, searching for chaulmoogra trees.

Tracing chaulmoogra history, Mr. Rock found that its seeds and oil "have been known for centuries to the natives of Burma and southeastern Asia in general as palliatives in leprosy and other skin diseases, and were employed by them both externally and internally."

There are about 500 lepers in the United States, as nearly as can be ascertained, says the United States Public Health Service. About 225 are in one colony at Carville, Louisiana. A small colony which was located at Buzzards Bay in Massachusetts was merged with the Louisiana colony in 1921. There are about 300 registered lepers and it is estimated that around 150 have not been identified.

Those afflicted are looking to chaulmoogra oil as their salvation, and the results achieved thus far with it lead sanguine medical men to foresee the day when leprosy will be added to the list of maladies which man can control.

PARISIANS PROTEST SMOKING BY WOMEN

PARIS, Aug. 18.—A protest is being raised in the Paris press against smoking by women in the streets.

"After the theatre," expostulates one writer, "is has become an ordinary sight to see a woman produce her cigarette and put away as she strolls homeward, just like the men. It is mostly foreign women, however, who set this far from graceful example, and we hope they will find many followers among their French sisters."

THE ONLY WAY YOU WILL EVER CATCH THAT PICKEREL IS WITH A STEEL LINE AND A STICK OF DYNAMITE FOR BAIT—HE NEVER TRAVELS WITHOUT HIS CHUM WHO GUARDS HIM LIKE A MOTHER.

I DON'T UNDERSTAND.

I KNEW YOU WOULDN'T—THAT PICKEREL HAS FOOLED SMARTER MEN THAN YOU ARE—HE ALWAYS SWIMS AROUND CARRYING A WISE OLD LOBSTER ON HIS BACK—ANY TIME THE PICKEREL GETS HOOKED HIS PAL REACHES OUT HIS SCISSOR LIKE CLAW AND CUTS THE LINE WITH THE OTHER CLAW. HE REMOVES THE HOOK AS EASILY AS A CHILD PICKS WILD FLOWERS—ALL YOU CAN SAY THAT TEAM IS WORTHY AND LAUGHS.

WOODMEN OF WORLD

MEET AT ROANOKE

(By The Associated Press.)

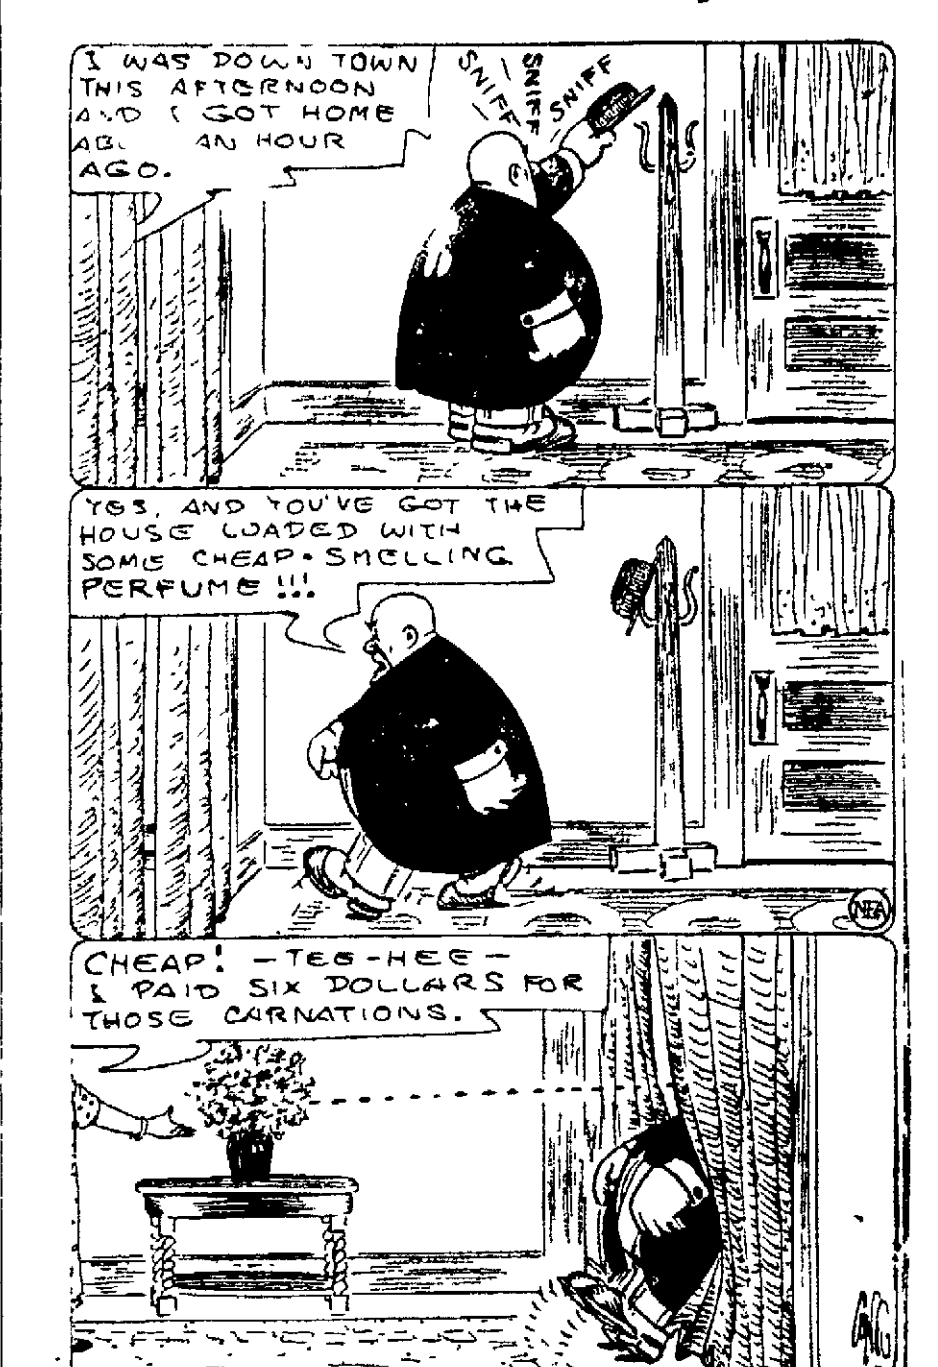

ROANOKE, Va., Aug. 18.—With approximately 250 members of the uniformed ranks, Woodmen of the World, accommodated in tents at Lakeside, a resort near here, the first day of the 1924 summer encampment of district number six which includes Virginia, North and South Carolina passed with little activity of note save the opening exercises held this morning.

These consisted of speeches of welcome by Mayor Blair J. Blackburn of Roanoke and B. F. Moenaw, secretary of the chamber of commerce and a response by L. L. Mather of Omaha, Neb., the assembled woodmen. The latter is ranking officer of the encampment and adjutant general of the national organization of woodmen.

The encampment, which will last throughout the week, will consist largely of routine military drills, band concerts and similar features each day. The biggest event of public interest, it is said, will be the parade through the street of Roanoke on next Thursday afternoon. No con-

FLIERS ARE DELAYED MOTHER OF EIGHTEEN CHILDREN JAILED

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Mother of 18 children and proud possessor of an anti-race suicide gold medal awarded her by former President Roosevelt, Mrs. Hama Pross, 48 years old, is in the county jail. She insists there must be some mistake about her incarceration and Warden Westbrook agrees with her. He says the only charges he can find against her are for disorderly conduct, and this is not sufficient to send her to jail.

Mrs. Pross is quite positive it is wrong to imprison her. "All I was doing was sitting on a park bench, crocheting lace," she asserts, "and they arrested me—that had six children when I was 21 and 18 altogether."

"Of course," she explained, "I was

FRENCH CABINET APPROVES WORK OF DELEGATION

Premier Herriot Reads Report on Conference Which Pleases Members

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, Aug. 19.—The French cabinet today unanimously approved the work of the French delegation at the international conference in London and thanked it for the important results it had attained in the interests of France.

The cabinet met this morning and after having listened attentively to a report by Premier Herriot on the proceedings and results of the conference, gave its approval of the accord which had been concluded at the lengthy meeting at the British capital.

It was decided that the premier should read his declaration before the Senate and Chamber Thursday, giving a complete report of the work at the London conference to both bodies of the French legislature.

Meantime the ministers will attack an important problem of internal policy, meeting this evening to consider measures connected with the high cost of living, notably in regard to the price of bread.

The cordial reception accorded M. Herriot this morning by his colleagues of the cabinet echoed the enthusiasm of the throngs of men and women who came to greet him when he arrived from London yesterday evening.

The approval given by the cabinet this morning to the work of the French delegation in London is said by competent observers to augur well for the survival of M. Herriot's report through the two or three weeks of preliminary buffeting it will have to undergo. Eight important interpellations are scheduled and eight prominent members are on the list for speeches and it is understood that M. Herriot does not desire to cut short the discussions.

Whatever the results of the debates in the two houses and it is not felt the premier's course will receive any serious setback in either of Herriot's ready has the satisfaction of the knowledge that the general councils of three departments of central France have passed congratulatory resolutions on his work in London.

MORNING STOCK LETTER

(Courtesy Thomson and McKinnon.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Think of one one thought well fixed in mind. We cannot have an advance every day because if we did within a few months values would be at very dizzy heights. In every line we must expect now and then a little piece of rough road. They even have it in the cotton market. Think of anguish and disappointment of a great many that prepares an elaborate speech telling of farmers hardships and misfortunes and what he will do to relieve it and before he gets a chance to deliver the speech a lot of foolish grain merchants and foolish millers—that don't know anything about their business, begin to bid against each other for wheat and corn and up goes prices and the farmers bank account is mounting and the family smiling.

Some politicians are just out of luck. I started to say something about the stock market—just stick to the long side but do not be afraid to take profits after three or four days strong market.

A Story Without Words

Good Morning Judge!

Lizzie Adams, colored, appeared in the Police court this morning at a witness against Mary Leach. She came to testify that Mary assaulted her and that she used every sort of "cuss" word imaginable on her. But alas, Mary walked out of the court without having lost a penny while Lizzie was minus just something over eleven cluckers after the hearing, all because she lost her temper or lost her sense of pride one, for during Mary's testimony, Lizzie called her a "jar" and poured forth a long vocabulary of vile language. The mayor fined her for contempt of court. She continued so unruly that finally a couple of policemen had to take her to jail for a while. She was also made to pay the costs of the warrant against Mary.
